Objective

I'm a self taught graphic artist and a designer. I'm working as a freelancer for 3 years now. I've had experience working as a social media manager for different companies as well. I've worked with clients around the globe via freelancing sites like fiverr and upwork. I'm currently looking for an actual job because I want stability and I believe it teaches you to be a disciplined person as well.

I'm an expert in Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator & Indesign. I use Photoshop for hand-drawn illustration and other stuffs. I use Illustrator for vector design. I use Indesign to design other kind of documents such as newspaper, brochures, posters, etc. I can do a little bit of video editing as well. I've a basic knowledge of Premiere Pro and After effect.
